A workshop on Career Guidance and Women Empowerment was conducted by the Department of CSE on 4/4/2018 for which Ms. Ch. Rekha Rani, member of Management Association, Hyderabad was invited as the speaker. In her talk, she expressed that today's market provides number of opportunities to youth. But students are not able to grab those opportunities due to lack of skills. She exhorted students to develop communication skills apart from core skills which would certainly boost their confidence levels.

Every year Women Grievances Cell (ICC) celebrates Women's Day with the following objectives: 8-3-2018.

- To empower girl students by inviting influential women speakers as chief guests.
- To explore their innate talents by conducting different competitions and utilize them to the maximum for the betterment of the society.
- To create a feel of empathy among the youth to their fellow beings.

For these celebrations, Margam Lakshmi Annapurna, Vijayawada was invited as the chief guest. In her emotional address, she remarked that the present day youth should sacrifice some time for the betterment of the society which would bring a sea-change in the existing scenario. Prizes were distributed to the winners of various competitions.
